

Sunday, December 10, 2006 • Dr. David Platt
THE INCARNATION: MARVEL OF NATURE
Philippians 2:7

The Unique Son...

- He is the _____ Creator, yet He becomes a _____ of His creation.
  - ▶ Jesus is one person with _____ natures:
    - As the Son of God, He is _____ God.
    - As the Son of Man, He is _____ man.
  - ▶ Revelation by _____...
    - By emptying himself, Jesus _____ reveals both deity and humanity to all creation.

- He is _____, yet He pays the _____ for sin.
  - ▶ He alone can _____ for human sin.
  - ▶ He alone can _____ divine wrath.

- He is transcendent _____ His people, yet He identifies intimately _____ His people.
  - ▶ In human likeness...
    - He is familiar with our _____.
    - He is familiar with our _____.
    - He is familiar with our _____.
  - ▶ Because He identifies with us, He _____ for us.

The Bottom Line...

- The Incarnation is a marvel of nature which incites infinite _____.
- Jesus is the unique Son who incites infinite _____.

Sunday, December 10, 2006 • Dr. David Platt
THE INCARNATION: MARVEL OF NATURE
Philippians 2:7

The Unique Son...

- He is the sovereign Creator, yet He becomes a slave of His creation.
  - ▶ Jesus is one person with two natures:
    - As the Son of God, He is fully God.
    - As the Son of Man, He is fully man.
  - ▶ Revelation by humiliation...
    - By emptying himself, Jesus perfectly reveals both deity and humanity to all creation.

- He is perfect, yet He pays the price for sin.
  - ▶ He alone can substitute for human sin.
  - ▶ He alone can satisfy divine wrath.

- He is transcendent over His people, yet He identifies intimately with His people.
  - ▶ In human likeness...
    - He is familiar with our struggles.
    - He is familiar with our sorrow.
    - He is familiar with our suffering.
  - ▶ Because He identifies with us, He intercedes for us.

The Bottom Line...

- The Incarnation is a marvel of nature which incites infinite wonder.
- Jesus is the unique Son who incites infinite worship.